Program Description

The Florida First Responder Scholarship Program is created to assist in the recruitment of law enforcement officers, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, and firefighters within the state by providing financial assistance to trainees who enroll in an approved training program.

Applying for an Award

Students will need to meet eligibility requirements through the application process established by the participating institution. Applications may be obtained at the financial aid offices of eligible Florida postsecondary institutions.

Requirements to Receive Funding

To be eligible for the scholarship award, a trainee must:

- Not be sponsored by an employer that is already covering the cost of the training program, and
- Be enrolled in one of the following programs:

Award Procedures

The scholarship shall be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. Eligibility for awards is based on the date the postsecondary institution receives each completed application from the applicant. Program funding is contingent upon an appropriation by the Legislature and each postsecondary institution's intent to participate.

The postsecondary institution will disburse awards to eligible students each term. To be eligible for the scholarship award a trainee must:

Transferring from one institution to another could affect an applicant's award.

Use of an Applicant's Social Security Number/Non-discrimination Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires state agencies to inform applicants of the reasons for requesting their Social Security numbers (SSN). The FDOE requests an SSN on all applications for student financial assistance to correctly identify applicants, match each applicant's financial aid record with the student record at the postsecondary institution the applicant attends, and help coordinate state student aid programs with federal student aid programs.

An applicant will not be denied financial assistance for failure to disclose the SSN. Without an SSN, correct identification of an applicant's record cannot be assured and may result in an error in the award amount or a delay in the award disbursement.

Pursuant to section 1000.05, Florida Statutes, state student financial assistance is provided to eligible applicants without discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, or marital status. Minority status will be considered when required by law as a condition of eligibility or selection.
